Therapy Limits

Medicare limits how much it covers for outpatient physical therapy (PT), speech-language pathology (SLP) and occupational therapy (OT). The limits for 2010 are:

- $1,860 per year for PT and SLP combined, and
- $1,860 per year for OT.

Exception

In 2010, if you have a condition that requires medically necessary services, you may be able to get an exception to these therapy limits. If this is the case, your therapist will communicate clearly with you and work with Medicare to extend the therapy limits. As always, you have options and we'll work with you to make sure you get the care you need within the guidelines of Medicare.

Deductible and Co-Insurance

After you pay your $155 (in 2010) yearly Medicare Part B deductible, Medicare pays its share (80%) and you pay your share (20%) of the cost until the total, including the deductible and coinsurance payments, reaches the limits. Do you have a secondary insurance? If so, your share (20%) may be covered under your policy.
